BRIGHT HOUSE NETWORKS, PARTNERS TO HOST C-SPAN BUS AT STATE CAPITOL THURSDAY

INDIANAPOLIS (Tuesday, Aug. 21, 2007) – Bright House Networks and partners Indiana Cable Television Association and Indiana Bar Foundation will host the C-SPAN Bus at the state Capitol Thursday.

The public is invited to tour the 25-foot mobile multi-media demonstration center and TV production unit from 3:30-5 p.m.

At 4 p.m., state Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Suellen Reed and Indiana Bar Foundation Executive Director Charles Dunlap will publicly discuss the state of civic education in Indiana, the importance of civic engagement and resources available through both the C-SPAN Network and Cable in the Classroom to inform, educate and enlighten viewers about civic participation.

Thursday's event is a prelude to the Indiana Bar Foundation's first-ever Summit on Civic Engagement on Sept. 11 at Indiana Historical Society.

Since 1993, the C-SPAN Bus and its crew have traveled the country to inform voters, empower teachers and enrich civic education. Thursday, the bus will be located on Government Place between the north and south Indiana Government Center buildings.
