BRIGHTHOUSE TEAMS UP WITH THE INDIANA SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF

“Playing for a Purpose”

Indianapolis, IN February 8, 2008 – Brighthouse Networks and the Indiana School for the Deaf (ISD) will meet on the basketball court in a goodwill scrimmage to raise community awareness for the ISD Athletic Program. This event will take place on Friday, February 8th, at the Indiana School for the Deaf at 7:00 pm. The doors will open at 6:00 pm. This event is open to the public and admission is only $3.00 per person. All proceeds and donations will benefit the ISD Athletic Program led by Athletic Director Brian Bippus.

The Greater Indianapolis Deaf Club Basketball team, coached by Carl Denney, will represent ISD. The team features players from the Deaf Olympic Team, USA Deaf Basketball, and the World Deaf Championship tournament. Coach Denney has led his team to an 82-13 record since 2005. For more information on the ISD and ISD Athletics, go to <http://www.deafhoosiers.com>

The Brighthouse Networks team features employees with varying basketball backgrounds that have volunteered to play as part of the Brighthouse Networks Health and Wellness Program. For more information on Brighthouse Networks go to <http://indiana.mybrighthouse.com>
